

2. Construction plans and other information on an application may be disclosed;

- a) where the owner or his authorized agent of the plans have given their written permission.
- b) to government employees or agencies authorized by the Building Code when acting in the course of their duties.